Western Students Welcome Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

LONDON, ON: The University Students' Council is excited to announce the arrival of Robert F. Kennedy Jr. at The University of Western Ontario. Mr. Kennedy will be speaking to University students, faculty, staff, and the London community on March 24, 2010. The address, entitled "Our Environmental Destiny," will highlight the role natural resources play in our work, our health, and our identity.

"More than just an advocate for the environment, Kennedy is an architect and agent of change in our modern world," said Dan Moulton, the University Students' Council Vice President University Affairs. "Mr. Kennedy's message, as a leading advocate for the protection of our natural world, is a topic that will surely resonate with members of our action-driven Western community."

Tickets will be available at InfoSource in the University Community Centre and online at www.kennedyatwestern.ca. Students can purchase tickets for $15.00 plus tax.. A limited number of non-student tickets will be available starting February 25th, 2010 for $30.00 plus tax). The event will take place at The University of Western Ontario's Alumni Hall with doors opening at 6:15 p.m. and the speech commencing at 7:05.p.m. In addition to his dynamic address, Kennedy will partake in a question and answer period with the audience.

"Mr. Kennedy's arrival at Western is sure to be a memorable experience for students, faculty, staff and the entire Western community," said Moulton. "Kennedy is an internationally-recognized crusader against the continued deterioration of our planet, and has been named one of Time magazine's 'Heroes for the Planet' for his success in helping the RiverKeepers lead the fight to restore the Hudson River, as well as rivers and lakes across North America."
